

Weather Contingency Plan for Disability Advocacy Day

We know many of you are keeping an eye on the forecast for Disability Advocacy Day on March 5, 2025, and so are we! As of now, the forecast shows a possibility of rain, but we all know how quickly the weather can change—last year, we saw a similar forecast and ended up with a beautiful day!

We are closely monitoring conditions and will provide updates as needed.

What happens if the weather gets bad?

- If conditions remain safe, the event will go on as planned.
- If severe weather makes it unsafe to proceed, we will cancel the event and immediately begin looking at possible alternative dates.
- Any changes will be communicated as soon as possible through our website, email, and social media.

The safety of our attendees, speakers, and volunteers is our top priority. We appreciate your patience and look forward to a fantastic event!
